SCHEDULE B

INSTRUCTIONS

1. Documents produced in response hereto shall be organized and designated to correspond to the categories in this request or produced in their entirety, in unredacted form, including all attachments and enclosures, as they are kept in the ordinary course of business, and identified as to the request or requests to which they are responsive. If any information specified in any request appears on any page of any document, all pages of the document shall be produced in response to the request.

2. Each request shall extend to all documents that are, or have been, in your direct or indirect possession, custody or control, or that were prepared, written, altered, sent, dated, or received, in whole or in part, at any time during the period of time covered by these requests.

3. To the extent that you object to any request, set forth all reasons for the objection. If you object in part to any request, produce the balance of the documents.

4. If you claim privilege as a ground for not answering any request in whole or in part, identify the nature of the privilege being claimed and, if the privilege is being asserted in connection with a claim or defense governed by state law, indicate the state's privilege rule being invoked. Produce so much of the document as to which you do not claim privilege, and for each document or part of the document as to which you claim privilege, provide the following information: (i) the type of document; (ii) the number of pages of the document; (iii) the place, date, and manner of recording or otherwise preparing the document; (iv) the name and title of the author of the document, and the name and title of all recipients thereof; (v) the general subject matter of the document; (vi) a statement of the basis on which a privilege is claimed and whether or not the subject matter of the contents of the document is limited to legal advice or information provided for recurring legal advice; and (vii) such other information as is necessary to identify the document.

5. In the event that a document called for by these requests has been destroyed, the response hereto shall identify the preparer of the document, its author, its addressee(s), each recipient thereof, the date the document was prepared and transmitted, a description of the subject matter, the date and manner of its destruction, and the person who destroyed it, as well as a description of the efforts undertaken to locate the document and copies thereof.

6. The requests set forth herein are hereby deemed to be continuing so as to require supplemental responses if additional responsive documents are obtained or discovered between the time of responding to these requests and the final disposition of this litigation.

7. Each paragraph herein shall be construed independently and not with reference to any other paragraph for the purpose of limitation.

8. Unless otherwise specified, the requests set forth herein call for documents created on or after October 5, 2000.

9. In responding to this subpoena, you are directed to furnish all responsive documents available at the time of production, and to supplement your responses whenever necessary, in accordance with the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure.

10. The documents produced shall be organized and labeled so as to correspond with the categories of this request, as set forth in the numbered paragraphs below, or shall be produced as they are kept in the ordinary course of business.
